

Puppets for Jesus

The PJs (Puppets for Jesus) work together to share positive messages in a way that delights all members of the congregation! Members of this group practice weekly and they welcome all who may be interested in prop construction, puppet animation, and/or prop movement behind the puppets as they perform.